Biographical Note

Manuel J. Vizcarra (b. Dec 6, 1924 – d. April 7, 2003) served as the eighth Bishop President of the Apostolic Assembly of the Faith in Christ Jesus from 1968-1994, and the first Bishop President of the Apostolic Assembly in Mexico. He was elected Bishop Supervisor of the Northern California District in 1967. Bishop Vizcarra also served as Secretary of Christian Education, General Secretary, and Bishop Vice President. He worked over fifty years in service to the Apostolic Assembly in the United States and Mexico.

Born in Mexico, Vizcarra grew up in New Mexico and Arizona, United States. He was baptized at the First Church of San José, California in 1945. He married Martha Araujo on December 6, 1953. Bishop Vizcarra earned degrees at the Instituto Teológico Apostólico Internacional (ITAI) and Fuller Theological Seminary.
