IRS District guidelines regarding Earned Income Credit: If you didn't claim credit but you think you may qualify, 1) please do not file an amended return until after your refund check - it just confuses the computer! 2) the computer will be programmed to check each return for possible eligibility for EIC. If by filing status (MFJ) and the list of dependents it looks like you qualify, the computer will either make an automatic adjustment to give you the credit or send for form CP32 to fill out and return. When you get the form fill it out carefully, a blank gets interpreted as a "no" which might disqualify you for the credit. If you have already filed and received a refund and think you might qualify, call the IRS and ask what procedures to follow for an amended return. But don't do this unless you already got back your refund.

The month of March is the time for filing for financial aid for 1976-77. Forms are available in the Dean of Students Office.

American Baptists! Remember the meeting with two Fuller alumni pastors on Tuesday evening, Mar. 9th, at 7:00 p.m. in the Geneva Room. This is a great opportunity to rap with a person who has been a pastor for many years, Charles Hughes, and with a recent graduate, Lawrence Swain. Together they have had a wide variety of experiences in different church settings so that the evening has every prospect of being especially important for practical learning. They are coming at their own expense so that we ought to give them a good hearing with many of us showing up.

DESCRIPTION:
Nothing in the history of the Church has been more dramatic or definitive than Pentecost and the events that followed. It is not unusual, therefore, that these momentous incidents would form the basis of a contemporary musical and dramatic presentation.

The course will center around the production of this contemporary Christian musical, "SPIRIT!" It is based on the first 12 chapters of Acts, and will involve drama, music, and dance as primary communication media. It will also emphasize participation in creative experiences of worship and small group interaction.

REQUIREMENTS:
- a) Regular rehearsal attendance.
- b) Participation in occasional discussion and evaluation sessions with Director and Advisor.
- c) Keeping of a journal throughout production.
- d) Careful reading and study of the first 12 chapters of Acts, with special attention to dramatic application.

FORMAT:
Three rehearsals weekly, 7:00-10:00 p.m., beginning Winter quarter and carrying through until production after the sixth week of spring quarter.

COURSE LEADERS:
Director: Gregory John Fritsch, M.A., Drama (University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, 1972).
Advisor: Dr. Robert N. Schaper, Associate Professor of Practical Theology.

RELATIONSHIP TO CURRICULUM:
An elective course in Ministry.

Further information available at Dr. Schaper's Office.
