Historical Note

From Fall 1947-Spring 1965, Fuller Seminary’s academic programs were administered under the Dean of Administration, later designated “Dean of the Faculty” (in 1955). Thus, the “Dean Files” from 1947-1965 contains papers related to the general operation of the overall Seminary and theological programs.

Fuller Seminary opened with a single degree offering, the Bachelor of Divinity (B.D.). Fuller Seminary inaugurated its Graduate School of Theology during the 1950-1951 school year, when students wishing to pursue studies beyond the Bachelor of Divinity were enrolled.

In 1965, the School of Psychology and the School of Intercultural Studies opened, requiring an individual Dean to administer each School. Thus, the original “Dean’s Office” (1947-1965) became the Dean’s Office of the School of Theology. On July 1, 2019, the SOT Dean’s office merged with the SIS Dean’s office under the leadership of Dr. Amos Yong.

Harold Lindsell was a founding member of the Seminary, beginning as Registrar in 1947. He also taught Church History and Missions Orientation. Lindsell served as Dean of the Faculty from 1948-1963.

Daniel Payton Fuller had many and varied roles at the Seminary through the years, including student, teaching fellow, and Dean. He served as a faculty member until 2000.

Scope and Content

The Fuller Theological Seminary School of Theology Deans’ Files, 1944- consists of the office files of Fuller Seminary Dean of Students’ Office (1947-1965) and the Dean’s Office of the School of Theology (1965-Present).

The “Dean Files” from 1947-1965 contains papers related to the general operation of the overall Seminary and its programs. Reflecting the the 1965 transition of the original “Dean of Students’ Office” into the Dean’s Office of the School of Theology, the collection’s contents focus on the School of Theology administration.

Materials include the records of Harold Lindsell (1952 to 1963), Daniel Payton Fuller (1963 to 1973), and William Dyrness (1990-2000). Harold Lindsell's files include Library records kept by the faculty library committee, 1948-1965.

Of particular interest—the collection includes Fuller Seminary’s contracts for the Veterans Administration and the Seminary’s Articles of Incorporation.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged chronologically beginning in 1944 with the files of Dean Harold Lindsell, boxes 1-4; records by the faculty library committee in boxes 5-7, and continuing with an alphabetical file for 1964, boxes 7-9. The next section consists of one folder for acting Dean Gleason Archer for the year 1961-1962 and the files of Dean Daniel Payton Fuller, Dean from 1963 to 1973, boxes 10-12.

In 2018, the records of Dean William Dyrness were added as a series. The records are physically arranged and described according to the subject arrangement received from the Dean's Office. Series 1, Box 1 was found falling apart and replaced.

Series 1: Harold Lindsell, 1944-1965 (Boxes 1-9)

The series includes records related to the general administration of the Seminary, including Reports of the Dean of Administration to the Board of Trustees, Veterans' Administration contracts, and faculty library committee meeting minutes. Records are arranged chronologically.

Of particular interest, the series includes Fuller Seminary's Articles of Incorporation. Another copy of the Articles is located in the Papers of Daniel Payton Fuller collection.

Series 2: Daniel Fuller, 1961-1973 (Boxes 10-12)

The series contains records from the School of Theology Dean's Office from 1961-1973. Most records relate to academic programs within the School of Theology. However, files also include initial planning for the School of Psychology and School of World Mission.

Series 3: William Dyrness, 1984-2006 (Boxes 13-25)

The series contains records from the School of Theology Dean's Office from 1984-2006. Most records relate to specific Academic Programs within SOT. Correspondence files include letters by SOT Deans David Augsburger (2000-2001) and Howard Loewen (2001-2013).

The materials' original physical arrangement was retained as well as most of the original folder descriptions. Individual file folders were grouped in larger green hanging folders; each folder had a corresponding title, which is retained in the description. The Correspondence File folder descriptions were expanded to clarify the files' nature. Original descriptions within this section were limited to alphabetical letters (eg "A", "B", etc.)

Series 3: William Dyrness, 1984-2006

The Dean William Dyrness series contains records from the School of Theology Dean's Office between 1984-2006. Most records relate to specific Academic Programs within SOT. Correspondence files include letters by SOT Deans David Augsburg (2000-2001) and Howard Loewen (2001-2013).

The materials' original physical arrangement was retained as well as most of the original folder descriptions. Individual Folders were grouped in larger green hanging folders; both names were included below. The Correspondence File folder descriptions were expanded to clarify the nature of the files. Original descriptions within this section were limited to alphabetical letters (eg "A", "B", etc.)
