FOOTBALL FANS! Our two all-star teams will be playing two games each this Sunday afternoon (Dec. 5) from 2-4 p.m. against Talbott Seminary at Biola-Talbott. Each team will play each of Talbott's two teams, so you can watch two games at once and two in a row (that's a total of four big games for you football freaks!) Leave the boob-tube and pro-ball behind for some live action as you support your Seminary in the "Battle for the Football". (Map posted on sports board in mailroom)

MORE FOOTBALL! Playoff games between the Eastern and Western Hemispheres will be at 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., Monday, December 6. Then Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. the Titans of the Turf will tough it out for the Icthus Bowl championship. STUDIA BIBLICA ET THEOLOGICA NEWS: The Fall '76 issue is due from the printers in about a month or so. Articles for the Spring '77 issue have been selected and are now being processed for publication. The editors are now keen to receive articles for consideration for inclusion in the Fall '77 issue. We usually have quite a few good articles in the field of New Testament studies submitted for consideration for each issue. We generally receive very few good articles in other fields and would welcome papers dealing with subjects in the fields of Old Testament, dogmatics, ethics, historical theology etc. Please contact Colin Kruse (Box #517).

Paul Avasian, BD '54, and pastor of the United Armenian Congregational Church, was an inspiration to his congregation as he shared with them his two-year battle with cancer. Paul's friends at Fuller will want to know that struggle ended November 23, with memorial services held November 28. We pray God's blessing on Paul's wife Grace, and their three sons.

ATTENTION SWM STUDENTS. Editors of SBT would be very glad to receive for consideration for publication articles of a high standard from SWM students. The articles would need to treat their subjects in such a way that the article could justifiably be included in a journal concentrating on biblical and theological studies. Is there anyone prepared to take up the challenge? Please contact Colin Kruse (Box #517)

BE WILLING TO ASK QUESTIONS! Followers of "Rev. Moon" have been soliciting in the Fuller apartment complex and near to campus on street corners. They sell candy for either "a Christian Mission for social concern" or "a Christian camp." These people are associated with the Unification Church that is not Christian and is antithetical to God's work in this world. Before you give someone money find out who they represent. Please do not do anything to support "The Unification Church". Bruce and Martie Dreisbach (Space is available in this section to anyone having classified items. Rates are available from the Dean of Students Office.
