5-Week Series for Parents-to-Be

Married couples at Fuller undergo a tremendous amount of stress which comes from jobs, study, ministry demands and relationship demands. Often the decision to become parents and have children is pushed onto the back burner. When is the right time at Fuller to have children? Or is there a right time? What are the issues that parents-to-be go through when the announcement comes from the doctor that both of you are pregnant? The Office of Christian Community is offering a 5-week series, 2 hours per session, for Fuller couples who are in the process of becoming parents or those close to making that decision and want to be better prepared. The series will begin the second week of Spring Quarter. If you are interested, sign up at the Office of Christian Community in Carnell Hall and check the best possible times you can attend. If you have any questions, call 584-3322 or contact Roy Christman, Marriage and Family Intern.

Peggy will share her experience and beliefs on the subject of sanctuary.

ALL SEMINARY COUNCIL

As a result of discussion with student government and faculty, the ASC/Joint Faculty Committee for Peace and Justice has been formed. The committee is in the process of formulating proposals regarding Fuller's response to issues of injustice in South Africa. To this end, we are researching what links exist between Fuller and South Africa, noting the flow of students, faculty, and visitors to and from this campus. We strongly encourage a structure which includes dialog from the marginalized point of view whenever a presentation about South Africa takes place. If anyone has any information or comments in this regard, please contact: Wilma Jakobsen, Box 1116.
Committee Members Needed

If you would like to become more involved with peace and justice issues here at Fuller and would be interested in being a part of the Peace and Justice Concerns Committee, please contact Wilma Jakobsen, Box 1316, 398-0259, or Janet Shands, Box 1333, 796-1719.

New Peace and Justice Resource Center!

The Peace and Justice Concerns Committee is happy to announce that the new resource center is operational this quarter. Articles and some books and tapes are available on many topics, including: hunger, urban issues, South Africa, Central America, community, spirituality, nuclear issues and more. We are open 2-3 hours/day; hours are posted on the door. Find us in the ASC Conference Room, 2nd floor, Catalyst building. Please use us for your papers, independent studies, or your own personal research.

Financial Aid for Summer Interns

If you would like to pursue the idea of doing a summer internship in some area of peace and justice issues, and would like to apply for finances from the Fuller Student Fund, please contact Wilma Jakobsen, Box 1316, or phone 398-0259. Soon!

Focus on Central America:
