Incoming Presbyterian Students: A meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, October 18, 3:00-5:00, in the Chapel of the Presbyterian Church to discuss the relationship and integration between Fuller and the denomination, and denominational requirements.

**********

Presbyterian Seniors Planning to Write the Standard United Presbyterian Exams: You must fill out an application prior to Friday, September 29. The application is available in the Placement Office.

Attention Lutheran Students: There is an excellent opportunity for Lutheran students at Fuller to reach a better understanding of their denomination's distinctive approaches to ministry. This significant course, Lutheran Perspectives on Ministry, will be taught on Tuesday afternoons, 3:00-5:00, beginning September 26 and ending December 5, Payton Hall, Room 302. As well as providing for the examination of Lutheran categories and particularities, this course will provide an opportunity to meet other Lutheran students and local Lutheran clergy, and it will develop a community for theological interaction within a Lutheran context. Interested non-Lutherans are also most welcome. The contact person: David Johnson, Messiah Lutheran Church, 795-7748.

Christian & Missionary Alliance Students: Mr. Bill W. Lanpher, Assistant Vice President/Division of North American Ministries, will be here on the Fuller campus on Tuesday, October 3. An individual appointment with Mr. Lanpher can be arranged at the Placement Office. If there is to be a general meeting with all interested students a notice will appear in the next SEMI.
Incoming Asian and Asian-American Students: There will be a potluck dinner for the new students sometime soon (probably the second week of school). Notices will be given to you through your Post Office boxes.

There will be a class offered next quarter entitled "ASIAN MINISTRIES" taught by Dr. Mas Toyotomi. He is an excellent teacher and the class will be non-academic, focusing upon the Asian community here in America and how best to evangelize it. I would highly recommend this course, since I know Dr. Toyotomi personally. I hope to see you soon.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. & Mrs. Brian Ruttencutter (nee Marilyn Grubb) married on the ninth of September.
Have you come to Fuller Seminary, certain that you are to be here, but uncertain as to what's next? Or, are you married to someone who has come as a student, and you'd like to start thinking about your own future? Sign up for Career and Life Planning, a course which deals with these questions. Topics include: what are my skills; what kinds of work fit those skills; how can I find the right job? Class runs from 5:30 - 7:30 P. M. for three weeks, from Oct. 10-26. To register, call Ext. 156 or 167. Taught by Libbie Patterson, a career counselor. Cost is $15.00.

YWCA Benefits for Women Students: All women students may attend free swims and exercise classes at the Pasadena YWCA at no charge. Simply take your Fuller Seminary student body card to the YWCA when you register. The program there begins October 1 (the second week of classes), and runs until the end of June, 1979.

WOMEN STUDENTS, both new and returning: Save the date, now! October 11th, Wednesday evening at 7:30 P. M., at the home of Dean Meye. A get-together for new and returning women students. Details, directions, and car pool arrangements will be announced next week; for now --- circle your calendar!

WIVES: Do you need to find a job, fast? Sign up for the Job Hunting Seminary, to be taught by Mary Jean Zee, a professional employment counselor who has a tremendous ministry finding jobs quickly and at no charge to Fuller wives. A VERY helpful evening, if you need a job right NOW! Class to be held Wednesday, Sept. 27, at 7:30 P. M. in Room 303. To register, Call Ext. 120 or 193.

Are you a flexible person? YWCA facilities will be available for all women students starting next month. Our contract with the "Y" runs from October 1 to June 30. During that time, any woman student may go to the YWCA at 78 North Marengo (793-5171) and participate free of charge in any fitness class or swim "plunge."

There is no need to get any special card -- Simply go directly to the YWCA, present your Fuller Seminary student card, and get ready for a s-t-r-e-t-c-h-i-n-g experience!!

(Participation in this special program does not constitute membership in the YWCA, however, and no other classes are included in this Fitness-Swim package. Unfortunately, spouses and families are not eligible.)
ARE YOU A FULLER WIFE? Looking for ways to meet other wives? To become a part of the Fuller community? Here are some suggestions:

1. If your husband is taking MN500, Foundations for Ministry, make sure that you attend with him. These small groups are great support for entering students and families.
2. Come to all Fuller-sponsored social activities, beginning with the all-campus square dance on October 7. (See announcement later in this issue)
3. The Babysitting Co-op exists for families to trade sitting services at no cost. A good way to meet other mothers!
4. Same with the food co-op.
5. Watch for Wives' Group meetings, in the Semi. Planned for Fall quarter: a woman psychologist speaking on you and your child's self image (good even if you don't have a child!); a nutrition night, a crafts night (make your own Christmas presents for fun and profit!).
6. Take advantage of the courses taught by Glory Hees: "Marriage and Ministry", and by Libbie Patterson: "Career and Life Planning."
7. Read the SEMI weekly, for all announcements of coming events. This is the best way of finding out what is planned for you.

WELCOME TO FULLER SEMINARY, WATCH FOR COMING EVENTS - AND HAVE A GOOD YEAR!

These seminars are intended to assist you in integrating the practical experience of your field experience with the academic information you are obtaining in your classes. The group contracts as to meeting times, length of meetings and other aspects that would govern the life of the group.
