Within your spiritual and religious life have you had an experience that has been difficult to resolve? . . . Are you in the process of reconciling your past and present ideals of spirituality (i.e., "Fundamental," Roman Catholic, etc.)? . . . Has there been a confusing or disappointing charismatic experience? . . . Or maybe a painful falling-out with church leadership or church family?

Opportunities for both individual counseling and support groups are now developing for the purpose of processing some of the more difficult experiences that can surround our spiritual lives and affect our faith. The counseling and support groups are being co-sponsored by the Relationship Counseling Clinic and the Office of Christian Community. If you sense the impact of such experiences in your life and believe these services could help you grow through them, please let us know by filling out the tear-off below and returning it to OCC, Box H. All interaction will be confidential and will develop according to your particular needs.
