CHAPEL: "A FULLER SERVICE OF WORSHIP"

Dear God, as I begin this day
Let me turn my thoughts to you,
And ask your help in guiding me
In everything I say and do.

Every morning compose your soul for a tranquil day, and all through it be careful often to recall your resolution, and bring yourself back to it.

THE TEN O'CLOCK EVENTS FOR THE WEEK
SANCTUARY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Tuesday
"The Cross and the World: World Hunger and the Arms Race and Global Crucifixion." A Chapel service to be led by members of Bartimaeus Community in Berkeley.

Instead of a sermon, we will be hearing the short "Spiritual Journey" of one of our students, faculty, or administration each Thursday. Please come and worship God with us. (If you have any comments, or wish to be involved in this service, contact: John McClure, Box 490, or John Strong, Box 29.)

MUSLIM WORLD PRAYER FELLOWSHIP: A prayer meeting of those concerned for the evangelization of the Muslim world will be held each Monday evening at 5:15 P. M. at the north end of the Refectory. We will eat dinner together and then have a time of sharing and prayer, which should last until about 6:15. If you would like to pray with us, but the time is inconvenient, please call Jim Healton at 795-5677. Please consider the tremendous needs of well over 600 million Muslims among whom only a handful of missionaries and Christians are witnessing for Jesus Christ.

A CHOIR AT FULLER! Tom Gray has offered to direct a small Choral Group this quarter to sing at Tuesday Chapels. The choir will be limited to 20 voices., SATB. MORNING PRAYERS: Weekday mornings Tuesday through Friday, the School of World Mission students and faculty continue this quarter with a time of meditation and prayer between 7:45 and 8:00 A.M. All members of the Fuller Seminary Community are heartily welcomed to join with us as we share current concerns of the Church and mission worldwide along with personal areas for support. With student and faculty leadership, it is a time in which we realize the special gifts and cultural richness of the people making up our community as we grow as a supportive body. Mark Nikkel.

AN INVITATION TO ALL: Students are finding it helpful to team together in prayer with one or two individuals in their class, to pray for their studies and the class. If you would like to participate with us, there will be an orientation meeting on Thursday, April 5, at 12 Noon in the 150 Conference Room. (Janet Halvorson Box 302 or Cindy Paulson Box 447.)

Spiritual Life

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS AT FULLER? What does it mean? Where is it going? Why, anyway? At Chapel, Wednesday, April 11, President Hubbard, Dr. Newt Malony, Rev. Joan Stock and Dr. Munger will speak to these questions, sharing something of their own personal relationship to these kinds of questions. Please don't come just to listen, bring your own response to share with someone else.

Hark! A band of loquacious loyal readers and rigourously relaxed listeners will be sharing a special journey this quarter. Each evening, Monday through Thursday, a small and dedicated group of students will be sharing together, reading aloud J.R.R. Tolkien's third volume of his Lord of the Ring's trilogy. In front of a roaring fire, in stuffed chairs and soft sofas, at the Catalyst beginning at 10:30 P.M., Monday through Thursday evenings, you are cordially invited to enthrall your mind and imagination in the fantasy of Tolkien's The Return of the King. Feel free any evening to relax your panged mind and enjoy this classic fantasy for a forty-five minute journey into the delights of J.R.R. Tolkien.

As Student Council President, I am really interested in knowing your ideas, suggestions, and criticisms about anything and everything - (within limits of course). You can stop me on campus, drop me a note P. O. Box 202 or stop by the Student Council office. You can expect to find me there (it's on the second floor of the Catalyst) Monday 8:00 - 9:00, Wed. - 8:00 - 9:00, Thurs. 8:00 - 9:00, or Fri. - 8:00 - 9:00. Harold Otterlei.

STUDENT COUNCIL met last Tuesday. One of the things we talked about is a new approach to the waiting list for Fuller Housing. This approach was worked out between Lee Merritt, Marie Marcus, and Harold Otterlei: We gave it our approval on the condition of one change on the leasing policy. We think it is a good policy. If you want to find out more about it, ask a Student Council member.

Financial Aid

The newly designed Financial Aid Forms are now available. Psych students will get theirs through the School of Psychology. Theology students may pick up a form at the switchboard or in the waiting room of the business office. Missions students will continue to use the financial aid applications provided by SWM.

THE DEADLINE FOR TURNING IN THE APPLICATION HAS BEEN MOVED TO APRIL 30 BECAUSE OF THE DELAY IN GETTING THEM TO YOU. THEY SHOULD BE RETURNED TO THE FINANCIAL AID OFFICE WHEN COMPLETED.

It is important that the figures you enter are accurate as well as legible. Please do not apply for aid unless you really need it. Many students in real need this year had to do without assistance from the Seminary because of the lack of sufficient funds. If you receive aid you find you do not really need, we implore you to voluntarily return the grants and loans to us so that your brothers and sisters can have their crises eased.

It is our goal to inform returning students of their aid packages before the end of spring quarter (via your mailboxes here) but, failing that, be sure the mailing address you show for the summer on the application is the one at which you will be sure to receive notification of the decisions of the Financial Aid Committee in your case. This is particularly important because you will be required to sign the Offer of Financial Aid and return it to us in order to receive the aid offered.

Last June, Fuller Seminary co-sponsored a national conference, "Women and the Ministries of Christ". That conference was attended by over 850 women and men from all over the country. The leadership team included evangelicals of national stature: Virginia Mollenkott, Don Williams, Becky Manley Pippert, Letha Scanzoni....and over 50 other speakers and workshop leaders. If you missed the conference, don't despair. A book which contains the major writing from the conference, including all the main addresses, and all the study/discussion groups, is now available, through the Fuller bookstore. If you attended the conference, and have friends who did not, this is also a great way to catch them up on what they missed. If there are people in your church who are discussing the "women's issue", this makes an excellent resource book, from an evangelical perspective. Check with the Fuller Bookstore for your copy.
Career/Life Planning Seminar

April 2, 4, 11, 16, 18, & 23
5:30 - 7:00 p.m.
Payton Hall 302
Cost of $15.00

Instructed by Libbie Patterson

CAREER PLANNING involves much more than deciding "what-am-I-going-to-be-when-I-grow-up?" It involves looking at oneself, in order to find one's own unique skills, abilities, and interests. It involves Value Decisions, Priority Setting, and Long-range -- as well as Short-range -- Vision... For the Christian, it means above all discovering and being assured of doing what God has called one to do.

IF YOU ARE WONDERING ABOUT THE FUTURE -- or trying to help someone who is -- perhaps this course is for you.

TOPICS INCLUDE: Skills Identification, Values Clarification, Deciding Priorities, and More...

Two VOCATIONAL INTEREST TESTS are included in the course.

REGISTER by calling Libbie Patterson at Fuller Extension 167.

Alas: Someone may be left off the Graduation List. WILL IT BE YOU? (The Registrar's Office has recently exhausted the complete supply of sympathy cards.) If you have not completed the INTENT TO GRADUATE form, go immediately to your Academic Adviser so you won't be the one left off the list--and without a sympathy card too.

NEW ARRIVALS AT THE BOOKSTORE--

At long last, Dr. Charles Kraft's Christianity in Culture: A Study in Dynamic Biblical Theologizing in Cross-Cultural Perspective is here. Destined to maintain Fuller's controversial position in the evangelical world, this book is part of a growing body of literature recognizing the importance of an interdisciplinary approach (in this case, anthropology) to biblical interpretation. Dr. Kraft should spark some significant dialogue between the School of World Mission and the School of Theology. (Note: the first shipment sold out in two days, but another is expected shortly.)
E. Auerbach, Mimesis: The Representation of Reality in Western Literature (paper)—a modern classic, now gaining importance in the hermeneutical debate.

A. N. Wilder, Early Christian Rhetoric—Professor Wilder of Harvard (now emeritus) is fast becoming the patron saint of the current trend in American biblical scholarship which approaches the Bible as literature.

R. Reitzenstein, Hellenistic Mystery Religions (paper)—available for the first time in English, this is the classic treatment of this topic which had a great impact upon the history-of-religions movement in Germany.

D. G. Spriggs, Two Old Testament Theologies (paper)—a helpful comparison and analysis of the contributions of two giants in the field: Eichrodt and von Rad.

G. Vermes, The Dead Sea Scrolls: Qumran in Perspective—the most up-to-date survey of the current status of Qumran research, with extensive bibliographies for further study.

H.-W. Weber, The Cross: Tradition and Interpretation—a new shipment of this interesting redaction-critical study has arrived.

S. Kierkegaard—the collection of Kierkegaard's works has been restocked.

J. Conway, Men in Mid-Life Crisis—a helpful book for pastoral counseling.
