COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENT

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Al Heystek, 2nd year M.A. student, on the recent death of his father.
Food, an all-pervasive sign of our wealth and abundance. Our time schedules, our social lives revolve around FOOD. We know that others are starving and think maybe our Christianity should move us to some action. But the problem is so immense and what we might do seems so insignificant. And those grim statistics and pictures of starving children really turn us off. We're immune to that guilt trip.

However, believing that the Gospel does say something to all of us about treatment of the poor and our own attitudes about our wealth, the Human Concerns Committee invites you to struggle with us concerning these issues. On April 29th, we bring you FOOD DAY, with several opportunities for looking at various aspects of the food problems -- our abundance and the world's need.
