CHAPEL AT FULLER
10:00 a.m.

Tuesday, April 18: TRAVIS AUDITORIUM. Dr. Sam Reeves, Chairman of our Board of Trustees and distinguished Christian layman from Fresno, will speak as part of our continuing Call to Prayer. His opening message to the Board was so well-received that he was persuaded to share his concerns with our students and faculty. This is a proper part of our call to prayer and all are urged to attend.

Faculty will join with students for this special service.

Wednesday, April 19: PRESBYTERIAN SANCTUARY. Community Worship. We welcome the Covenant Players, nationally-known drama group who have brought the gospel in dramatic form to thousands across the nation. You will enjoy and be blessed in the process. Offices will be closed so all may participate.

Thursday, April 20: TRAVIS AUDITORIUM. School of World Mission Chapel. What do the Jewish Passover and Jesus’ Last Supper have in common? Avi Snyder, staff evangelist with Jews for Jesus, will answer that question as he presents “Christ in the Passover.” All are invited.

CHAPEL SINGERS: Rehearsals for the Wednesday Service are now being held on Tuesdays at 5:00 P.M. in Payton 101 and/or Wednesdays at 9:00 A.M. in the Preaching Center. Come to either one and then join on Wednesday at 10:00 A.M.

FINANCIAL AID

- Justin Haruyama Memorial Scholarship
  This scholarship is offered to anyone committed to promoting bi-lingual, bi-cultural ministerial leadership among Japanese-American congregations. Applications are available in the Financial Aid Office for the May 1 deadline.

- Eastern Star Scholarships
  Many Religious Leadership Training Awards available to "those whose objective is to become ministers, missionaries," and church staff. If you know a woman from your church/community affiliated with the Order of the Eastern Star, ask about this generous program. Deadlines vary, but generally around May 1.

- J.K. Fukushima Memorial Scholarship
  Awards to students who will promote Christian living and provide service to the Japanese-American community. Deadline is May 31; information is available in the Financial Aid Office.

- United Methodist Students
  The Priscilla R. Morton Scholarship assists full-time students with high grades (3.0 or better). Applications must be requested by May 15; for more information, stop by the F.A.O.

- Aloha (Hi) Residents
  Nanu Congregational Church offers scholarships to study for preparation in any church-related vocation. Applications are available in the Financial Aid Office for the May 31 deadline.

- Attention Student Borrowers!
  Federal regulations specify that if you drop below half-time status, you must notify your lender within 10 days. If you drop to zero units, you may owe a refund to your lender. Check with the Financial Aid Office beforehand!

SCHOOL OF PSYCHOLOGY

- Research Colloquia
  On April 25, from 11:00 A.M. to 12:15 P.M., Thomas Graham, President of the Center for Organizational and Ministry Development will be speaking on "Prediction of Success in Church Planters" in Travis Auditorium.

HAPPENINGS

- Madison House Parents Night Out
  Here is your opportunity for a quiet night out while your children have a fun evening at Madison House on Friday evenings from 5:00-8:00 P.M. The cost is $3.00 per child for the evening; reservations are required! Please contact Renee Driesenga at 793-3827 for more information and reservations. Reservations need to be made by Wednesday evening.

- Madison House Playground
  Playground hours are from 3:30-5:30 P.M. Monday through Thursday, and from 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. on Friday and Saturday. Nice, big playground with tricycles, slides, swings, sandbox, etc. is available to all Fuller families, so come on by!

- Recovery of Hope
  Event for discouraged or stressed-out couples. No matter what your problems are, there are others who have been there too. Three couples will share their personal stories at a special single morning event, Saturday, April 15 from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 P.M. Please call PCCC for information and reservations.

- Workshop on Conflict Resolution
  Come to a workshop on Conflict Resolution, on Monday evening, April 17, from 7:00-8:30 P.M. in Payton 301. Carol Visser, a local psychologist, will be discussing issues dealing with how to approach conflict, how to examine sources of conflict, how to cope with conflict, and how to resolve conflict. Come alone or with a partner. Sponsored by the Office of Christian Community.

- Lausanne II Candidates
  You are invited to come to a special preparation meeting which will be conducted on May 15 in the ASC Conference room from 12:00-1:00 P.M. This will be a time to get to know other participants, to pray together, and to better prepare the participants to attend this strategic event. Any questions, please contact George Alexander, Lausanne participant.

- Tony Campolo Visit
  Many of you may already be aware that Tony Campolo, well-known Christian speaker and author, will be at Fuller on Thursday, May 4 to speak to us about what it means to be a leader. There will be a question and answer session in the afternoon and an evening lecture (more details to come)

For those of you who weren't aware, we're telling you now. Sponsored by the TGU.
We now meet on campus in the Refectory at 7:00 P.M. on Friday evening for Spring Quarter. Let us celebrate the Lord together as the Fuller Community. This is sponsored by the SWM Graduate Union, Missions Prayer Fellowship, and Missions Concerns Committee. Any questions, please call Steve at 584-5453.

Conference on "The Homeless and Chemical Dependency: A Call to Action!"

On Thursday, April 27th from 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. there will be a conference for clergy, lay persons, treatment providers, as well as professionals in the private, business and public sectors for the purpose of creating: Awareness, Connections, and Solutions. A number of different workshops and panel discussions will be available. The fee for full-time students is only $15.00, which includes breaks, a resource notebook and a luncheon where Pasadena Mayor, William E. Thompson, Jr. will be addressing the need for a community response to the homeless situation. For registration form or for more information, call the Office of Continuing Education at 584-5340.

Hispanic Banquet

The Hispanic Ministries Department wishes to invite the members of the Fuller Community to the annual Hispanic Graduates Banquet, in which all Hispanic Graduates from all three schools are honored. The banquet will be held on Monday, May 8th in Payton 101A, at 6:30 P.M. The cost is $15.00 per person. Please contact the Hispanic Ministries office at 584-5586 to make your reservations. You can pay later, even upon arriving at the banquet. This year we will be celebrating the 15th anniversary of the Hispanic Ministries Program. We will also be saying farewell to our Coordinator, Naomi Rojas, who will be retiring at the end of June.

Inner Healing Event

On Friday, April 28 at 3:00 P.M., there will be an Inner Healing Event sponsored by the Intercultural Renewal Ministries.

Summer Mission Retreat

Let's go to Big Bear! Missions Concerns Committee is conducting a retreat for all people who are considering or planning a Summer mission this year. We will be going to the beautiful San Bernardino mountains. We will leave Friday, April 14 in the afternoon and return on Saturday, April 15 in the evening. Dr. Paul Hiebert will share with us on how to prepare for cross-cultural ministry. Call 795-2372 for more information. Reserve your bunk today!

* THERAPY OPPORTUNITIES *

The Pasadena Community Counseling Clinic at Fuller Seminary announces a guided plan to help you get the troubling emotion of guilt off your back. Located in the Graduate School of Psychology, the group will meet Tuesday evenings from 5:30-7:00 P.M. on April 18, 25, May 2, and 9. A one time fee of $30.00 covers all four sessions. You will learn 1) the difference between feeling guilty and being guilty, 2) to distinguish rational and irrational guilt feelings, 3) to take your eyes off the past and live in the present, 4) how to keep guilt from sabotaging your relationships, 5) how to avoid guilt motivation (in preaching, parenting, etc.), and 6) the Biblical alternative to guilt feelings, etc. The facilitator, Les Parrott, is a Ph.D candidate in Clinical Psychology at Fuller. He has studied the emotion of guilt in the church for the past five years. His dissertation, "Guilt and the Loving Person", examined how guilt inhibits our capacity to love others. Les has authored several articles on the emotion of guilt and speaks on this topic to churches throughout Southern California. Call the clinic at (818) 584-5550 and ask for the "Good-bye to Guilt Group". Pre-registration is required and space is limited.

Low Cost Counseling

The Relationship Counseling Clinic offers marital, pre-marital, family, relational and individual counseling services to Fuller and the greater Pasadena community. If you cannot meet the standard fee for service, we have a special subsidy program based on a sliding scale. Because of our emphasis on relationships, we are now offering the first four sessions of either marital, pre-marital, or family counseling for only $30.00. This offer applies to Fuller students, staff and their immediate family. If interested, please call 584-5347.

* FIELD EDUCATION *

Sharlene Nelson of the St. Joseph Medical Center's Home Health/Home Hospice program will interview students on Wednesday, April 19 in the Garth from 11:00 A.M.-3:00 P.M. The interns will be part of a team providing pastoral care to patients in their homes. The internship will start in September, 1989. Please contact Field Ed. office for more information or to sign up for an interview.

Dr. Frank Alton of the Intercultural Theological Institute for Pastoral Studies (ITIPS) in Mexico City will be on campus April 24 to interview prospective students for a cross-cultural internship or independent study experience among the poor in Mexico. ITIPS offers the opportunity to reflect theologically and pastorally from outside one's own cultural setting, specifically from the summer program (June 16-August 12), the interim program (January 3-31, 1990), and the year long internship beginning July or September, 1989. Applications are available in the Field Ed. Office.
Resume Writing Workshop

Rev. Rick Siemens and Rev. Glen Kendall from the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society will be in the Garth on Tuesday, April 18 from 9:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. Persons interested in church planting and missions with the society are welcome to meet with them.

Cross-Cultural Teaching Opportunity

Cape Evangelical Bible Institute in Cape Town, Republic of South Africa will be needing someone to come on faculty this year if possible. The candidate should be able to teach in both systematic and general Biblical studies (church history would be a plus). Either long or short term is acceptable. C.E.B.I. is non-racial and committed to being relevant within the South African context. They are also an "aggressively" inter-denominational institution. If you are interested, please contact the Reverend Alan Jansen (Principal), 424 Klipfontein Road, Surrey Estate, Athlone, Cape Town, 7764, FSA. Call: 637-5400 or 638-1178, Paul Pierson.
