A LETTER TO ALL STUDENTS FROM YOUR
PEACE & JUSTICE COMMITTEE

* HELP END APARTHEID in SOUTH AFRICA ****

 COVENANT together with us to BOYCOTT all SHELL products **
• JOIN us in the GARTH on May 16th and 17th from 10 am to 3 pm •

In Fuller’s MISSION BEYOND THE MISSION statement to “Seek peace and justice in the world”, a government to which Christians can be loyal is defined as that which upholds biblical values such as:

- freedom of worship,
- restraint in the use of power,
- exercise of justice toward all inhabitants,
- concern for the quality of life of the citizenry,
- compassion for the under-represented and disadvantaged,
- commitment to keeping international peace, and
- enhancement of the dignity of every person.

The government of South Africa has violated every one of these values in its institution and continuation of the policies of apartheid. As Christians, we must speak and act NOW. As Proverbs 24:11-12 states:

Rescue those being led away to death;
hold back those staggering toward slaughter.
If you say, "But we knew nothing about this,"
does not God who weighs the heart perceive it?
Does not God who guards your life know it?
Will God not repay each person according to what they have done?

Between 10:00 am and 3:00 pm on May 16th and 17th in the Garth and on the Board of Declaration you will have an opportunity to make a commitment to neither purchase nor use Shell products until Royal Dutch/Shell disinvests from and severs all ties with South Africa. Please read the DECLARATION below to understand why we and many church organizations have decided on a Shell boycott. Then, join us to sign this DECLARATION and to covenant together to BOYCOTT SHELL for a period of time you desire or until Royal Dutch/Shell disinvests in South Africa.

A SHELL-FREE ZONE DECLARATION

The government of South Africa, in defense of the policies of apartheid, has maintained a state of emergency since July 20, 1985, thereby increasing military and police actions in the black townships, has restricted the operation of democratic organizations working to end apartheid, and has denied the majority of South Africans their basic human rights.
A SHELL-FREE DECLARATION (continued)

Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Reverend Allan Boesak, the South African Council of Churches, the Congress of South African Trade Unions, and the National Union of Mineworkers of South Africa have called upon U.S. organizations working for justice and democracy in South Africa to join in the international campaign to end all support for the government of South Africa and its policies of apartheid.

Royal Dutch/Shell, through its subsidiary, Shell South Africa, provides the South African police and military with fuel vital to their efforts to enforce apartheid.

The Government of South Africa defines oil as a "munition of war", and any oil company operating in South Africa is governed by a law which allows the South African government to operate the company's facilities in time of national emergency.

Major U.S. religious, civil rights, labor and anti-apartheid organizations have responded to the call from leading South Africans to join the campaign to end apartheid and suspend business with Royal Dutch/Shell, until Royal Dutch/Shell, in consultation with its workers and their unions, disinvests from and severs all ties with South Africa.

Therefore, __________________ declares itself a Shell-Free Zone and will neither purchase nor utilize Shell products until Royal Dutch/Shell, in consultation with its workers and their unions, disinvests from and severs all ties with South Africa.

Signed: _________________________ Date: _________________________

This DECLARATION will be available for you to personally sign and covenant with on May 16th and 17th.

Please prayerfully consider until those dates your own responsibility and role in seeking peace and justice in the world.
