* HAPPENINGS *

All-Seminary Women's Retreat

Holding Hands - a retreat offered by the Women's Concerns Committee for women students, women spouses, and women who work at Fuller: Sunday afternoon, January 14, to Monday evening, January 15, 1990 (Martin Luther King Day). Book the dates now; more details to follow. A time for building community and exploring spirituality. Office of Women's Concerns: Robin Nygaard/Elizabeth Myers, 584-5433.

Couples Retreat

A Couples Retreat sponsored by The Office of Christian Community will take place on Saturday, January 6, 1990. OCC is trying something different. We're having a one day, on-campus couples retreat. Married couples, engaged couples and couples seriously considering engagement are invited to attend, "The Mirage of Marriage: Moving Beyond Marital Myth" presented by Fuller School of Psychology graduates Herb and Laura Robinson. Together we will explore the unrealistic expectations that individuals bring to marriage. We will identify ways that these conscious and unconscious motives block true intimacy. Our goal is to enable couples to work through the fantasies and find solid foundations for nurturing satisfying growth-filled marriages. Child care will be provided through Madison House. Watch the Garth for details.

Winter Spirituality Retreat

Mark Friday, January 12, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., on your new 1990 calendars for our Winter Spirituality Retreat, at the Holy Spirit Retreat Center in Encino. As always, these retreats are designed for a quiet period of reflection and prayer, to create some space in our busy existence to be silent before the Lord. More details to come at the beginning of Winter Quarter. Sponsored by the Office of Christian Community.

Torah Lectionary Reading

Members of the Fuller community interested in building and maintaining their Biblical Hebrew vocabulary are invited to participate in a weekly reading of the Torah lectionary, with accompanying translation as necessary. This experience will be more geared toward exposure than instruction, and is intended to be a painless, pleasurable and even edifying way of building and retaining Hebrew vocabulary skills. This informal study circle meets every Monday from 8:30 - 9:45 a.m. at the Jewish Studies Program Office, Room 109 in the Glasser Building.
Men's Group

All right, you forgot. You meant to sign up for the Office of Christian Community Men's Group, but never got around to it, and it slipped your mind. Well, it's not too late! We've been meeting for a couple of weeks, and you're welcome to join us Mondays at 7:30 p.m. in the ASC Lounge (above the Catalyst). Grab a bite and come discuss relationships, power issues and anything on your mind! Informal and free, we will shift time in Winter Quarter to match schedules. Don't forget!

Fuller Author's Forum Series

Dr. Richard Mouw will speak on the topic of his new book, Distorted Truths: What Every Christian Needs to Know About the Battle for the Mind, Wednesday, November 29, 7-9 p.m., in Travis Auditorium. This is the first in the FULLER AUTHOR'S FORUM SERIES, co-sponsored by the Institute for Continuing Education, the Fuller Bookstore and Harper & Row Publishers. "More Babies?"

Did you have a baby this past summer or fall, or do you know a Fuller couple who did? Please let the Semi know about any new babies, and we'll make sure the new addition gets a proper announcement!

CHANGES IN POLICIES FOR THE SEMI:
(Effective January 1, 1990)

• Announcements For On-Campus Activities •

Only announcements for activities that are scheduled to take place during or after the dates that are in the upper, left hand corner of the issue (the Monday through Sunday of that week) will be published. For example, the issue for the 3rd week of Winter quarter will be dated "January 15 - 21", and will contain only information for Fuller community activities during or after those 7 days, even though the Semi may actually be distributed before these dates. This new policy should help to make the Semi deadlines more clear.

• Advertising for Therapists, Doctors, Dentists and Chiropractors •

We will no longer be printing private advertisements on the "Ad's" page for therapists, doctors, dentists or chiropractors. We have found that even though they are not in the official "Announcements" section, these advertisements in the Semi are often seen as having Office of Student Services or Fuller recommendation. To avoid confusion in these important areas, we will no longer print such ads. OSS will continue, however, to maintain referral lists for therapists, doctors, dentists and chiropractors, among our other referral services.

• Advertising for Internships and Off-Campus Employment Opportunities •

We will no longer be printing private advertisements on the "Ad's" page for internship and off-campus employment opportunities. Field Education and Career Services are here for all of us who need or want to publicize these positions. Visit them, they are there to help you. (On-Campus positions available through Personnel Services will continue to be printed, as usual.)

• Personal Advertising Rate Change •

The rates for placing personal ads in the Semi will be changing. The following will be our new rates:

Student/Staff/Faculty/Administration: $5 for the first 25 words, $.15 per word after the minimum.
Outside the Fuller Community: $7.50 for the first 25 words, $.25 per word after the minimum.

These fees will cover the labor and printing costs for the publication of the "Ad's" page, which are not being covered by the current rates.

Let me know if you have any questions. I hope the changes are clear, that they will make the Semi a more usable and effective resource, and that they will encourage the utilization of on-campus resources.
