The 1990 Missions Conference
"Thinking Globally - Acting Locally"

Sponsored and funded by Fuller's Mission Concerns Committee, CODEL and the Theological Graduate Union to be held January 16, 17, & 18, 1990 on the campus of
Fuller Theological Seminary
PASADENA, CALIFORNIA

Theme:
The Challenge of Mission in the 21st Century

The Reverend Alfred C. Krass, Plenary Speaker
Pastor of the United Christian Church in Levittown, Pennsylvania, Krass is a former missionary to Ghana. He has served as a consultant on evangelism for the United Church Board for World Ministries and the National Council of Churches, and was centrally involved in the development of position statements on evangelism for the United Church Board for World Ministries and the National Council of Churches. Krass is the author of three books on evangelism, Beyond the Either/Or Church, Go ... and Make Disciples, and Evangelizing Neo-Pagan North America. He is co-editor of The Other Side, a magazine of Christian discipleship. From 1980-85 he was engaged in front-line involvement with faith-and-justice issues of low-income residents of Philadelphia.

The Reverend Juan Carlos Ortiz, Guest Speaker
An ordained minister in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, Ortiz is a world-renowned teacher of discipleship. Author of four books, Disciple, Cry of the Human Heart, Living with Jesus Today, and Call to Discipleship, his theories come from experience. As pastor of the Faith Tabernacle, in Buenos Aries, Argentina, he worked hard to increase the membership from 184 to 600 in just two years only to become convinced that the church had not grown spiritually, but had just become "fat." Ortiz turned his attention to helping his church members become disciples under the lordship of Jesus Christ. His church became one of the fastest growing churches in Argentina. Today, Ortiz shares his commitment to the mobilization of the laity with churches around the world.
